About Ragged Rose

The brand Ragged Rose is a vibrant new lifestyle concept, conceived by Dawn Rose in 2010 from her garden summer house in the heart of the gorgeous Kent countryside.

Ragged Rose was born out of Dawn's desire to create a signature collection of gifts and homewares, based around her passion for beautiful country garden flowers on a hot summer's day and her love for strong, bold, vibrant colour. Initially inspired by a packet of flower seeds, the concept has evolved into a collection of completely original hand-painted artistic designs all based around a floral story.

Each design concentrates on one flower which is striking in appearance such as the Rose or the Anemone, complimented by colour coordinating plains in dramatic luxury fabrics such as velvet, along with ragged stripes and small ditzy mini prints such as leaves or petals which unite the whole concept.

A bold, colourful and contemporary look that says, "not yesterday's vintage!"

Glamorous and desirable pieces for the bedroom and bathroom, fabulous and funky, but still "functional" items for the kitchen and garden as well as some gorgeous, flirty, bags for those fun days out!

We know that your home is your castle and your sanctuary, so even on dull, grey days when the sun doesn't always shine, let Ragged Rose inject colour and energy into your life and celebrate the beauty of the English country garden!
